As a potential board member of your Homeowners Association (HOA), we would like to inform you about an important obligation under the Corporate Transparency Act (CTA). If elected, you will be required to file as a beneficial owner of record with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). Filing with FinCEN involves providing accurate personal information, including but not limited to your full legal name, date of birth, current residential or business street address, and a unique identifying number from an acceptable identification document, such as a passport or Driver's License, and a copy of that document. Association Directors must comply with the law as part of their duties to the community.
